A man who said his name was Frank Chadwick and who asserted that he was a "globe trotter" was full of indignation that he was arrested for intoxication, but he pleaded guilty in city court yesterday, nevertheless, and paid his fine. Officer Hamel was the man who caused the indignity. The prisoner said that in all the places he had visited, Barre was the first in which he had been hauled up short.

Phillip Pouillon, whose horse did a stunt on Washington street and broke its neck yesterday, made a complaint to Grand Juror Scott the same day that he had been set upon by three men, with one of whom he had had a horse deal. The horse was not the one that killed itself. Pouillon said that the assault took place at the East Barre "spring house," and the complainant asserted that he was so used up after his experience in this city that he wasn't able to defend himself against the three men, even if he had tried to.

Removal Sale--For 20 Days Only

THIS SALE BEGINS AT ONCE.

Prices that we have made at our January Clearance Sales are no comparison to prices in this sale. Our new store will be ready to occupy by February 1st. Our story is just this: These goods must be sold for two reasons. One is that we do not want to move a single piece. The other is that we must have money out of these goods before we move to put into new goods in the new store. Very few goods in this sale that brings the cost; many are but a part of the cost. Everything in our store has felt the pulse of this great mark-down (excepting Spool Silk and Thread). If your Dry Goods wants are but five cents, you can save on that amount by purchasing them here.
